Internet access is granted to account signers who are considered Primary Users.
Primary Users must be authorized account signers.

For security purposes, user identification codes and passwords are required in order to access The Bank of Glen Burnie's online banking service. Maintaining the secrecy of user identification and passwords is the responsibility of the Primary User. Third party users given access by the Primary User are also the sole responsibility of the Primary User.

The Bank of Glen Burnie® reserves the right to terminate use of internet banking at any time without prior notice. You may terminate access at any time by providing a written request of termination following the completion of previously authorized transactions.

The terms, conditions and regulations that were accepted when opening your accounts apply to all internet transactions. By utilizing The Bank of Glen Burnie's internet banking you acknowledge that you have read and understand your responsibilities as a Primary User.
